A first impression

Elegant panoramic villa with large park and outbuildings. The result of a refined renovation of a country house, the property has two floors above ground and one basement. The main entrance is from the porch with brick arches that gives access to the central atrium from which the various areas are distributed: on the left the large living room with fireplace and bathrooms, right to the outdoor porch with outbuilding and panoramic terrace, right in the kitchen area and second living room with arched windows that overlook the front garden. From the stairs we then proceed to the attic apartment on the first floor divided into a large living room living room embellished with an impressive brick fireplace, kitchen, two double bedrooms , two bathrooms and an additional room. In the basement is the large storage room flanked by the double garage. The flower garden that surrounds the villa extends as far as the eye can see over 280,000 square meters of meadows and woods that make up the property. An original and charming restored "roccolo" is located in the middle of the woods and can be reached from the various footpaths.
