A first impression

This bright and spacious one-bedroom unconventional apartment is located on the fourth and top floor of a residential condominium with an elevator.

The rooms are divided as follows: A living room/kitchen with a large Velux window, a master bedroom with an additional Velux window, and a bathroom.

The two Velux windows bring light and air into the rooms and offer fantastic views. In addition, these balcony-like roof outlets create a higher quality of living without losing interior space and provide a better quality of life.

The apartment was recently renovated to new.

Investors can expect an attractive return from this property.
