All about the location

The villa for sale is located in Colico, an exclusive resort at the northern end of Lake Como, in the province of Lecco. This privileged location offers breathtaking panoramic views of the lake and surrounding mountains, making every moment spent in the house a unique experience. Colico is easily accessible from Milan, Como, and Lecco thanks to the SS36 state road, which connects the Milanese city to the lake and Valtellina. The presence of the train station allows direct connections to Milan and other tourist resorts in the area. In addition, the town is well served by essential services, schools, hospitals and accommodation facilities, ensuring comfort and convenience for residents. The villa is located in a quiet and private residential area, ideal for those seeking privacy without sacrificing proximity to major points of interest. Its strategic location allows one to enjoy the beauty of the lake and mountains, while being a short distance from the conveniences of daily life. In summary, the villa offers a perfect balance between nature, tranquility and accessibility, representing an ideal choice for those who wish to live in an exclusive and refined environment.
